

Please allow XM and AM/FM stations to compete without the stifling intervention of federal regulation. XM and Sirius represent new technology that has been accepted (and paid for) by millions. Please allow market forces and customer acceptance to sort through the details. Thank you.